

THE FAD IN MANCHESTER

Everybody Must Go to the Masonic Bazaar.

A CONTINUED SUCCESS

Col. B. O. James Counsel for Frank Fitzgerald—The Olympia Club Banquet—Mr. Atwell's Funeral.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street. It is the fad to go to the Masonic Bazaar. The effort of those in charge of the affair were crowned with equally as great success as upon the opening night, and the ladies especially have reason to be proud.

The programme last night was very entertaining. Mrs. Charles Jones, who has one of the sweetest soprano voices in the city, sang in splendid style "My All," which was received with much applause. Mrs. Jones will sing again during the bazaar.

Mr. Archie Williamson, a singer and comedian of rare talent, amused the audience as only he could. He sang and told a number of stories just as Pres. Eldridge would have done, and he, too, will be called upon to contribute further before the bazaar ends. The crowd with a beautiful euphonium solo, and the Morrisett quartette sang splendidly. This quartette embraces Messrs. Morrisett, Lewis, Phillips and Nunnally. The programme for tonight is equally as fine. The Independent Mandolin Club will perform and Miss Deveraux will entertain on the piano.

Later Captain Cunningham, Captain Phillips, Wilson and Freeman, Johnnie Ryall, the Olympia Club entertainers and others will contribute their talents to the entertainment and amusement of those who attend the bazaar.

All the booths are doing a fine business. At Mrs. Daffron's booth there is much interest in the chances of the most popular doctor for the handsome ball, Mrs. Ingram, Hill, Brodnax, Loving, Bacon, Garnett, Archer and Mathews are in the race.

Voting on the stove for the most popular girl is also going fast, and the drawings for the Elks' pillow are nearly all taken. Only twenty more cards are open. WHERE TO EAT.

In the restaurant and ice cream saloon, meals and light refreshments can be had at all times. This portion of the bazaar is on the second floor, in the banquet hall, and is presided over by Mrs. Willie Lipscomb and Mrs. J. A. Williamson.

Col. B. O. James has been retained as counsel for Mr. Frank Fitzgerald. He will appear in the case when it is called in the corporation court.

OLYMPIA CLUB'S SUPPER.

The Olympia Club held a business meeting last night, after which the members sat down to a delightful repast tendered by Messrs. Hart and Reynolds in honor of the birthday of the president, who entered into his thirtieth year upon the stroke of 11 o'clock.

Mr. Wells spoke feelingly of the compliment paid him, and invited the club to join him at a similar affair next Thursday night. The club voted to do so.

An invitation from the Birds' Club, of Richmond, to join them at a social session to-night was received and accepted. A delegation from the club will leave Moore and Burke's at 11:30 o'clock to be with the Birds at 12 o'clock, the time that club gets together.

QUIET NIGHT.

But one arrest was made last night, that of an officer for being too full to take care of himself.

Captain James, of the police force, who has been sick for some months, was able to be out last night, and was on duty at the station house. His friends expressed much pleasure at him out.

MR. ATWELL'S FUNERAL.

A large body of sorrowing friends of the late E. H. Atwell attended his funeral at Central M. E. Church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. R. M. Chandler, most impressively. A large delegation of members of Manchester Lodge, No. 16, attended and paid their last respects to their dead brother.

Mr. Atwell's remains were interred in the beautiful Maple Cemetery. Mr. Atwell was one of the most popular of Manchester's citizens, and his death is regretted by the entire community.

FITZGERALD CASE.

Although the outline of defense has not been made, the case of Mr. Benjamin Fitzgerald will, when his case is called to-day, plead guilty, and that he will be sentenced on one count, and that the others will be nolle prosequed.

Mr. Fitzgerald has the sympathy of many of the citizens of Manchester. He was well liked and held in the highest esteem, and no one wishes to see the entire number of indictments pushed.

POLICE COURT.

Mayor Maurice fined Anne Thompson $2.50 for assault.

Claude Jones and Peter Wingo each paid $2.50 for being drunk.

Jordan Guy was charged $2.50 for shooting a pistol in the street.

Walter Wingo paid $2.50 for fighting, and L. Powell contributed $1 for letting his horse wander about.

PERSONAL AND NOTES.

Those who were injured in the street car accident are getting along nicely. The city mission will meet at Bathbridge-Street Church at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Luther Roach has gone to Montreal.

A HOME WEDDING.

Mr. Eugene Lipscomb and Miss Mabel H. Crooks United.

Mr. Eugene W. Lipscomb and Miss Mabel Harriet Crooks were married yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. A. Crooks.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Jenkins, D. D., of the Methodist Church.

The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, beautifully rendered by Miss Horner.

The bride entered the parlor with her sister, Miss Elsie Crooks, who was maid of honor.

The groom entered with his brother, Mr. John B. Lipscomb, of Manchester.

During the ceremony, Miss Horner played "Hearts and Flowers" very softly.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a blue tailor-made traveling suit, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

The maid of honor was costumed in white chiffon and carried a bouquet of La France roses.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums, the color scheme being carried out in

Our Clothing a Success

NO MATTER how certain we ourselves may feel that our Clothing is correct, still, we cannot be quite sure until the people have passed their judgment. We were satisfied that the superior tailoring and trimmings put into our Suits and Overcoats made for this season would be appreciated, and we were not mistaken. All who have seen our magnificent assortment of Suits and Overcoats pronounce the style, fit and finish the best they have ever seen. There is such a variety that selection seems to be the only difficulty. Our prices are no higher than those asked for ordinary ready-made Clothing.

Suits for All Occasions, $10 to $25
Overcoats in Every Proper Style, $10 to $30

YOUNG MARTIN NOW GOES FREE

Commonwealth Enters Nolle Prosequi in the Case—Sale of Farley's Pistol.

In the County Court of Henrico yesterday morning a nolle prosequi was entered by the Commonwealth in the case of J. Ryland Martin, the young white man charged with forging the parents' consent to his marriage to Miss Mollie Yarbrough, a pretty sixteen-year-old girl of Hanover county.

This final disposition of a case which has excited the most widespread interest in the county, is most gratifying to a large number of people, who have given the writer their sympathy to the young people. Both Mr. Martin and his bride are from Hanover.

They eloped to the neighboring county of Henrico, and the young man, according to the charge, forged a paper purporting to be the written consent of the parents of the girl to the marriage. The parents caught up with the pair after the marriage ceremony had been gone through with and promptly swore out a warrant for Martin. In due time he was indicted and the case was dragged on through the courts until yesterday, when it reached the happy termination indicated. It is said that all hands have made up and will probably live happily together ever afterwards.

Some eight or ten curious spectators gathered in front of the Henrico Court-house yesterday morning and watched the sale of the pistol once the property of Farley, chief of the strike-breakers. The writer, Simon Solomon, with no small degree of pleasure, presided over the exercise.

The expectation that a large crowd would be present and that there would be a lot of spirited bidding was rather disappointed. The incident was, nevertheless, one unique in its interest, and it attracted considerable attention. The sale was probably the last echo of the strike.

The pistol was worth about $3. It was sold to Mr. John E. Broadus, clerk of the Circuit Court, for $2.50. It is understood that it was bought for Mr. Solomon.

Dunnivant-Jenkins.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Arthur Dunnivant, an electrical engineer, and Mrs. Dunnivant, nee Mrs. R. J. Jenkins, of Newport News, and Miss Rosa V. Jenkins, of Bedford county, were united in marriage by Rev. J. O. Babcock at the home of Mr. R. J. Jenkins in Fairmount.

Miss Roberta Woodbridge, the bride's cousin, was bridesmaid, while Mr. R. J. Smith acted as best man. Only a few guests of relatives and friends gathered to witness the ceremony of this popular young couple and to extend to them their hearty congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunnivant left immediately after the ceremony for their future home in Newport News.
